Marginally noted Correspondence from the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, together with a remission statement for Rs 1391-6-0, in favor of Narayappa, defaulting Toddy Veed Farms of Salgaume &c in the Hassan taluk for 1893-1894, I have the honor to state that owing to the high price at which Narayappa purchased the Toddy

Veed farms for 1892-1893, he is said to

x Salgaune
Hooviahully
Koodargundi

to have suffered considerable loss.
To enable him to recoup the loss he, though a defaulter for 1892-1893, was permitted to bid during the sales for 1893-1894, when the ^{*}marginally noted Loddy Veed Farms were purchased by him for an annual rental of Rs 4105-8-including local Cess. He paid the usual Cash deposit equal to 3 months Khish
As he did not pay the arrears of Khish due by him on account of his lease for 1892-1893, his moveable and immoveable property was attached for the same on the 2nd March 1893. A short time after the attachment the said property was also attached on 5th August 1893 on behalf of the defaulter's creditors in virtue of the decrees they had obtained against him in the Mysore Sub Judge's Court In the meanwhile, in June 1894, the defaulter Narayappa paid the whole of

of the arrears due for 1892-1893. The Amildar accordingly credited the account for the arrears of 1892-1893.
On the 7th April 1895 the Deputy Commissioner of the Massee district ordered the Amildar to reattach the property and sell the same on account of the arrears of 1893-1894, subject to the decree of the civil Court. Accordingly the Amildar sold the property in August 1895, but no bids were received.

2. As the Deputy Commissioner reports that the defaulter Narayappa has no other property, and as there is no ^{other} means of making good the arrears, I beg to recommend that the account with the interest due thereon up to date, may be ordered to be written off the accounts. The Remission Statement had not been verified by the Comptroller, as no Ledger was opened in his office for the years 1892-93 & 1893-94.

(1) While the above Narayappa was a defaulter for 1892-93 under what circumstances was he allowed to take up the Toddy Veed Farm for 1893-94?

(2.) Through whose carelessness were the arrears allowed to exceed the security deposits of the defaulter?

(3) Why was the Farm not resold in due time immediately after the defaulter failed to pay the Khist for one month?

(4) In his petition dated 23rd August 1895 to the Deputy Commissioner, the defaulter complains that he suffered loss in consequence of his complaints ^{regarding} obstacles in connection with certain date groves, not having been settled, and also owing to the retail price of Toddy at weekly fairs having been reduced from 1 anna to 6 pices. Memo of Correspondence relating to the arrears due by Salgaume Narappa of Nassau Taluk for 1893-94.

Horvina hally No 90
Salgaume "170
Kudogomdy "62
No 322

Salgaume Narappa purchased the marginally noted Taddy Veed Farms at a monthly rental of Rs. 322 during the sales of 1893-94. The sale was confirmed by the then deputy Commissioner.

7th April 1893.

The Amildar reported that Narappa deposited only Rs 207 at the time of sale, that he did not produce personal security equal to three months Khist and not execute the usual mutchallika on the 3rd April 1893 as promised by him and that therefore the Farms should be resold.

10th April 1893.

The deputy Commissioner remarked that this should have been brought to his notice earlier and ordered that the Farms should be resold.

15th April 1893.

The Amildar reported that Narappa produced Cash Security (equal to two months Khist) as it was

was in accordance with the rules and that he would take steps to resell the Farms if Narayappa failed to pay up the monthly Khists on the prescribed date.

Narayappa failed to pay up the Khist for April 1893. The Amildar resold the Farms as noted on the margin and reported for its Confirmation.

7th June 1893.

The Excise Assistant Commissioner, 16th June 1893, replied that the Amildar should report if Kishappa purchases of the Kudragundi Circle in the resale paid the required deposit.

The Amildar reported that he has already submitted the records of the re-sale for orders, & that he has received from Narayappa the Khist for April/93 as personally ordered by him (Excise Assistant Commissioner) and solicited instructions regarding the resale.

The Excise Assistant Commissioner 17th June 1893 replied that he would consider about the resale if Narayappa pays pays the Khist for May/93 with the the 20th June 1893.

30th June 1893. The Amildar reported that Narappa did not pay the Khist for May 1893, till the 25th June and urged for the confirmation of the resales as Narappa was not a man to pay the Khist punctually.

5th July 1893. The Amildar reported that Narappa not only furnished Cash security equal to three months Khist but also paid the monthly rental for April and May 1893. He also requested instructions about the resales already held.

No reply was made.

22nd August 1893. The Amildar reported that Narappa did not pay the Khist for June 1893, that the purchasers in the resales were complaining that neither the resales were confirmed nor their deposit accounts were returned and that therefore the resales should be confirmed as Narappa would not regularly pay pay the Khists.

The three Deputy Commissioners ordered 5th September 1893 that the proceeds deposited by the purchasers in the resale should be returned to them, as the bids received in the resale were very low and because Narayappa would sustain loss by cancelling his contract which he would consider, after he (Deputy Commissioner) is informed of the result of the collection of arrears due by Narayappa for 1892-93.

The Amildars reported that 19th November 1893 Narayappa did not pay the rental for October 1893 and suggested that the Farms should be resold.

The Deputy Commissioner ordered 22nd February 1894 the Amildars to inform Narayappa that the Farms would be resold if he failed to pay the Khist within 15 days time.

The Amildars submitted 3 crime sheets soliciting orders and instructions contained in Government Notification No. 11813 dated 14th January 1893.

The

13th April 1894. The Amildars reported that Naranappa did not pay the Khist within the time allowed for him and solicited permission to resell the Farms.

17th April 1894. The Deputy Commissioner remarked about the long delay in submitting the crime sheets and ordered the Amildars to solicit permission to resell the Farms.

25th April 1894. The Amildars Mohamed Raza reported that he assumed charge of the Taluk in March 1894 and that he could not account for the past omission and suggested that the arrears might be easily recovered by sale of defaulter's immovable property.

11th May 1894. The Deputy Commissioner ordered that the defaulter's moveable properties and undisputed immoveable properties, if any, should be attached and sold.

29th June 1894. The Amildars reported that the defaulter Naranappa and others have paid the arrears for 1892-3 and and the lands should be freed from attachment. He credited the account for the dues of 1892-93.

The Ariedas reported that the 30th June 1894, defaulters possesses no moveable property and no other immovable properties than those already attached.

The Deputy Commissioner remarked 21st July 1894, that it was very unsatisfactory he (Ariedas) did not sell the lands for arrears due for 1892-93 and 1893-94 and ordered that the lands under attachment for arrears of 1892-93 should be sold for arrears of 1893-94. The Ariedas reported that he sold 27th September 1894, the lands accordingly but received no bids.

The Deputy Commissioner remarked 12th February 1895, that the Ariedas was wrong in not having attached the lands in time for the arrears of 1893-94 and in crediting the account received by the defaulters for the arrears of 1892-93 instead of those due for 93-94, and directed him to report if the defaulters possessed any properties other than those already attached.

15th February 1895. The Amildar reported that he credited the account for 1892-93 as it was also a taken one, that he was aware of no other immovable properties than those already attached and that the same may be sold for the arrears of 1893-94.

7th April 1895. The Deputy Commissioner remarked that as the lands attached for the arrears of 1892-93 were not attached in time for the arrears of 1893-94 the decree holders had the priority over the lands in question and ordered therefore that the right title and interest of the defaulters should be sold.

4th June 1895. The Amildar reported that he sold the lands accordingly, but received no bids and solicited permission to credit the surplus amount if any arising from the sales of his lands attached for the years of land Revenue towards the arrears in question.

18th June 1895. The Amildar was ordered to report the result of the said sales.
The lands were accordingly sold by the Amildar and fetched only Rs 38/-

Hence a reference was made to the Excise Commissioners whether to confirm the said sale and send up a remission statement for the balance or to accept Narayappa's offer to clear the arrears by instalments. (Vide this office No 893, the then Deputy Commissioner, Mr. P. N. Purnaiya. The question that Narayappa should not be

The Amildar's report shows:—
(1) It was attached

and by the Civil Court on 5
August 1893

(1) On what date was the property of the defaulter Narayappa attached on account of the arrears of 1892-93 and on what date was the same property attached by the civil Court.

- (2) What was the amount due by him for 1892-93 including the balance of deposit and interest up to the date of payment? and he pay up the whole of such amount?
- The total amount due was Rs. 3444-13-8 the whole of which was paid up by the defaulter.
- (3) Had not the arrears for 1893-94 been due by him and added to the arrears of 1892-93 before his property was attached by the Civil Court, and if so, how could the decree holders have priority of right to the property, while it remained under attachment on account of such arrears due to Government.
- There is nothing to show that the arrears of 1893-94 were added to the arrears of 1892-93 before the property was attached by the Civil Court.
- (4) Is there no evidence to prove that the defaulter's relations brought a civil suit and caused the property to be attached by the civil Court with a view to defraud Government?
- There is suspicion but there is no evidence to prove it.
- (5) Are ^{not} the purchasers of the property at the sale held by the civil Court, liable for the above-said arrears of 1892-93 and 1893 and 1894.

in answering his office docket

No $\frac{60800}{174}$ dated 16th March 1898 and to submit a revised remission statement showing in the column of remarks, the interest due up to the end of April 1900

In reply to the above has the honor to state that owing to the separation of Excise Vetraculus "From" and "To" registers from the Revenue Department in the year 1894-95, the original Vetraculus record connected with the attachment of the properties belonging to Salgaume Narayappa for the recovery of toddy arrears due by him, could not be easily traced in the Excise Department and after a year search it was finally filed in the Revenue Records. Hence the long delay.

As to giving the particulars of the interest entered in the revised remission statement and as requested return of the entire Vetraculus record forwarded with this office docket No $\frac{1740}{1740}$ dated dated 14th April 1900 for reference ³¹

ACTION 11
FILE NO
SERIAL NO

Letter No: 1809 & 15th Sept 1900 89 from the Excise Commr in Mysore submitting for sanction a remission statement for Rs 1391-6-0 in favour of one Naranappa, defaulting toddy vend farmer of Salagur^{and} + in the Hassan Taluk for 1893-94 and recommending that as the amount is irrecoverable, the same with the interest due thereon may be ordered to be written off the accounts

2978-9 29/10/00
Ex 147

Order thereon.

Sanctioned with the following As there seems no possibility of recovering the amount due, the remission of Rs 1391-6-0 with interest is sanctioned with the observations that⁽¹⁾ Naranappa received a much more indulgent treatment from

from the local authorities, than he deserved. ⁽²⁾ ~~That~~ the sale of the farm in question to him in 1893-94 when he was a defaulter in respect of the instalments due for 1892-93 was irregular ⁽³⁾ ~~and that~~ coercive measures were not taken in proper time.
